

Sabina

bw, 16mm, short

Written, Directed and Produced by Vivien Dybal

The filmmaker invites her good friend Sabina for a visit to New York City. Despite her debilitating kidney failure which makes her totally dependent on a portable dialysis machine, Sabina valiantly struggles to pursue her dream to resume acting and a “normal” life.

